Bio of Stephanie Orr

(Candidate for OHCA Association Treasurer)

I have lived in the Oyster Harbor Community since 2015 when my husband (Glenn) and I moved here from Severna Park, MD.

My husband is an avid fisherman and while I am not quite as comfortable on the water as he is, I enjoy the beautiful Chesapeake Bay that surrounds us and the vivid sunsets over Oyster Creek.

I am the president of a medium size commercial electrical contracting company, and my duties include the management of all company assets including cash management, financial reporting, and the filing of all state and federal taxes. I have held this position for 23 years.

When not working, I can be found biking or walking around the neighborhood with our miniature schnauzer Ace occasionally followed by our cat Bailey.

From the moment we moved to Oyster Harbor I felt welcomed by the warm and friendly community and I would like the opportunity to give back in the position as Association Treasurer.
